

Integrated Management Policy

The PPE Fios Esmaltados S.A., a provider of electric wires and cables for the generation of electromagnetic fields, working in domestic and foreign markets, has its system structured according to the requirements of ISO 9001, ISO 14001, OHSAS 18001 e SA 8000.

PPE Fios Esmaltados firm commitment to:

- Fully meet the needs of its customers through quality of its products and services;
- Contribute to the prevention of pollution, minimizing or controlling the consumption of natural resources, air emissions, the release of liquid effluents, the generation of waste and recycling of materials;
- Prevent accidents and occupational diseases, preserving the health and physical integrity of employees and contractors;

- To respect employees and contractors, according to the principles of Social Responsibility;
- Comply with legislation and other requirements for the management of Quality, Environment, Health & Safety and Social Liability;
- Seek harmony of goals with their suppliers of products and services;
- Continuously improve its processes to ensure effectiveness and management efficiency in a sustainable manner, creating value for shareholders and other stakeholders.